

6. Although the Tuskegee Airmen of the 477th fighter group never saw combat duty overseas, they initiated a courageous stand against segregation at this field that rang loud and clear across the U.S. The incident is described by many as the first pro-active step to integrate the armed services.

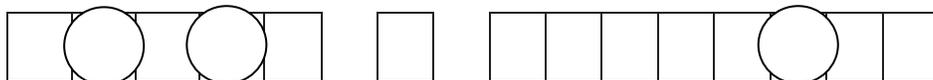

7. In Operation Desert Storm, he led U.S. Armed Forces to one of the most impressive victories in military history, and in 1989, became the first African American Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

8. In 1979, Hazel W. Johnson-Brown became the first female general in this U.S. military branch.

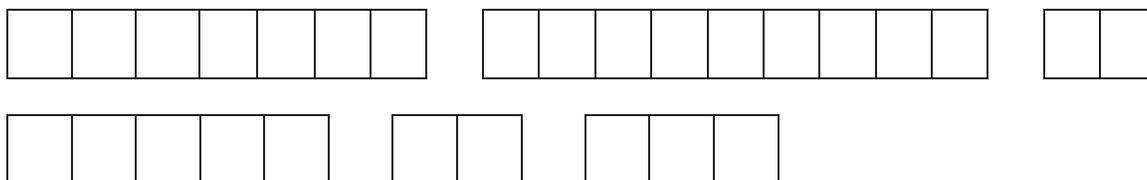

9. He was the first African-American Marine Corps aviator and the first African-American Marine Corps general.

10. She served in Operation Iraqi Freedom and became the first African American female combat pilot.

Unscramble the circled letters to fine the theme for Black History Month 2018:

Scramble Answer: African Americans in Times of War

|     |                           |    |                        |
|-----|---------------------------|----|------------------------|
| 1   | Emancipation Proclamation | 5. | Margaret E. Bailey     |
| 2.  | Cathay Williams           | 4. | President Harry Truman |
| 3.  | Phyllis Mae Dailey        | 3. | Phyllis Mae Dailey     |
| 6.  | Freeman Field             | 8. | Army                   |
| 7.  | Colin L. Powell           | 9. | Frank E. Petersen      |
| 10. | Vernice Armour            |    |                        |